Election:

We had 3 Trustee positions up for reelection this April. However, at the March meeting, only 3 candidates applied for those positions. Because all 3 candidates ran unopposed, there will be no need to hold an election at the April Meeting. Congratulations to Debbie Adkison and Rebecca McCoy, who maintained their current seats. And welcome aboard Amy Thrower into the final position. Also, a huge thanks to Steve Bright and a happy retirement, for his many years of service for our community! The mayor will be appointed by the Trustees at the April Meeting.

April Agenda:

- Call to Order
- Swearing in of 3 Trustees
- Call for vote for Mayor by Trustees
- Minutes
- Financial Report
- Old Business
 - Financial Business for the month
 - Update on current media events about the meatpacking plant
 - Update on the planning meetings
- New Business
 - Dumpster Days

Fire Insurance Due:

Winchester is covered by Beggs Rural Fire Dept. Rural Fire Insurance is minimal and covers the cost if you should need their services! Insurance fees are due ($50), March 1st annually. You may pay online at www.beggsruralfire.com OR print and send a subscription info sheet, with your check, to the address provided.
